

Formal Dedication Of L.C.J.C. On March 29

Dr. Paul M. Hebert and Other
Educators To Be Present.
Public Invited.

On Friday, March 29, the formal dedication of Lake Charles Junior college, will be held. On this day another milestone will be reached in the Lake Charles Junior college's early history. Special guests will be President Paul M. Hebert, Dr. J. G. Lee, and others from L.S.U; presidents of institutions of higher learning in Louisiana, parish and city superintendents, and high school principals of Southwest Louisiana.

The tentative program for the day, as announced by Dr. Farrar, includes a luncheon in the cafeteria for the school men, followed by the dedication at 2 o'clock. Featured on the program are music by the L.S.U. symphony orchestra, selections by an instrumental trio, a piano solo, and a vocal solo; introduction of special guests, and addresses by Dr. Hebert and Dr. Lee. At 8 o'clock in the evening the L.S.U. Players will present, "Our Town" in the new auditorium.

The public is invited and urged to attend.
